Wooden Art form

Sambhal, located in Uttar Pradesh, is famous for its exquisite wooden artifacts crafted by skilled artisans using traditional techniques. We source these unique wooden pieces directly from the artisans, providing them with a platform to showcase their craftsmanship, ensuring fair compensation, and helping preserve this age-old art form.

We are empowering traditional artisans in Sambhal who have been crafting exquisite wooden artifacts for generations. By eliminating middlemen, we provide these skilled craftsmen with a direct platform to showcase their work, ensuring they receive fair compensation for their artistry and preserving their cultural heritage.

Resin Art

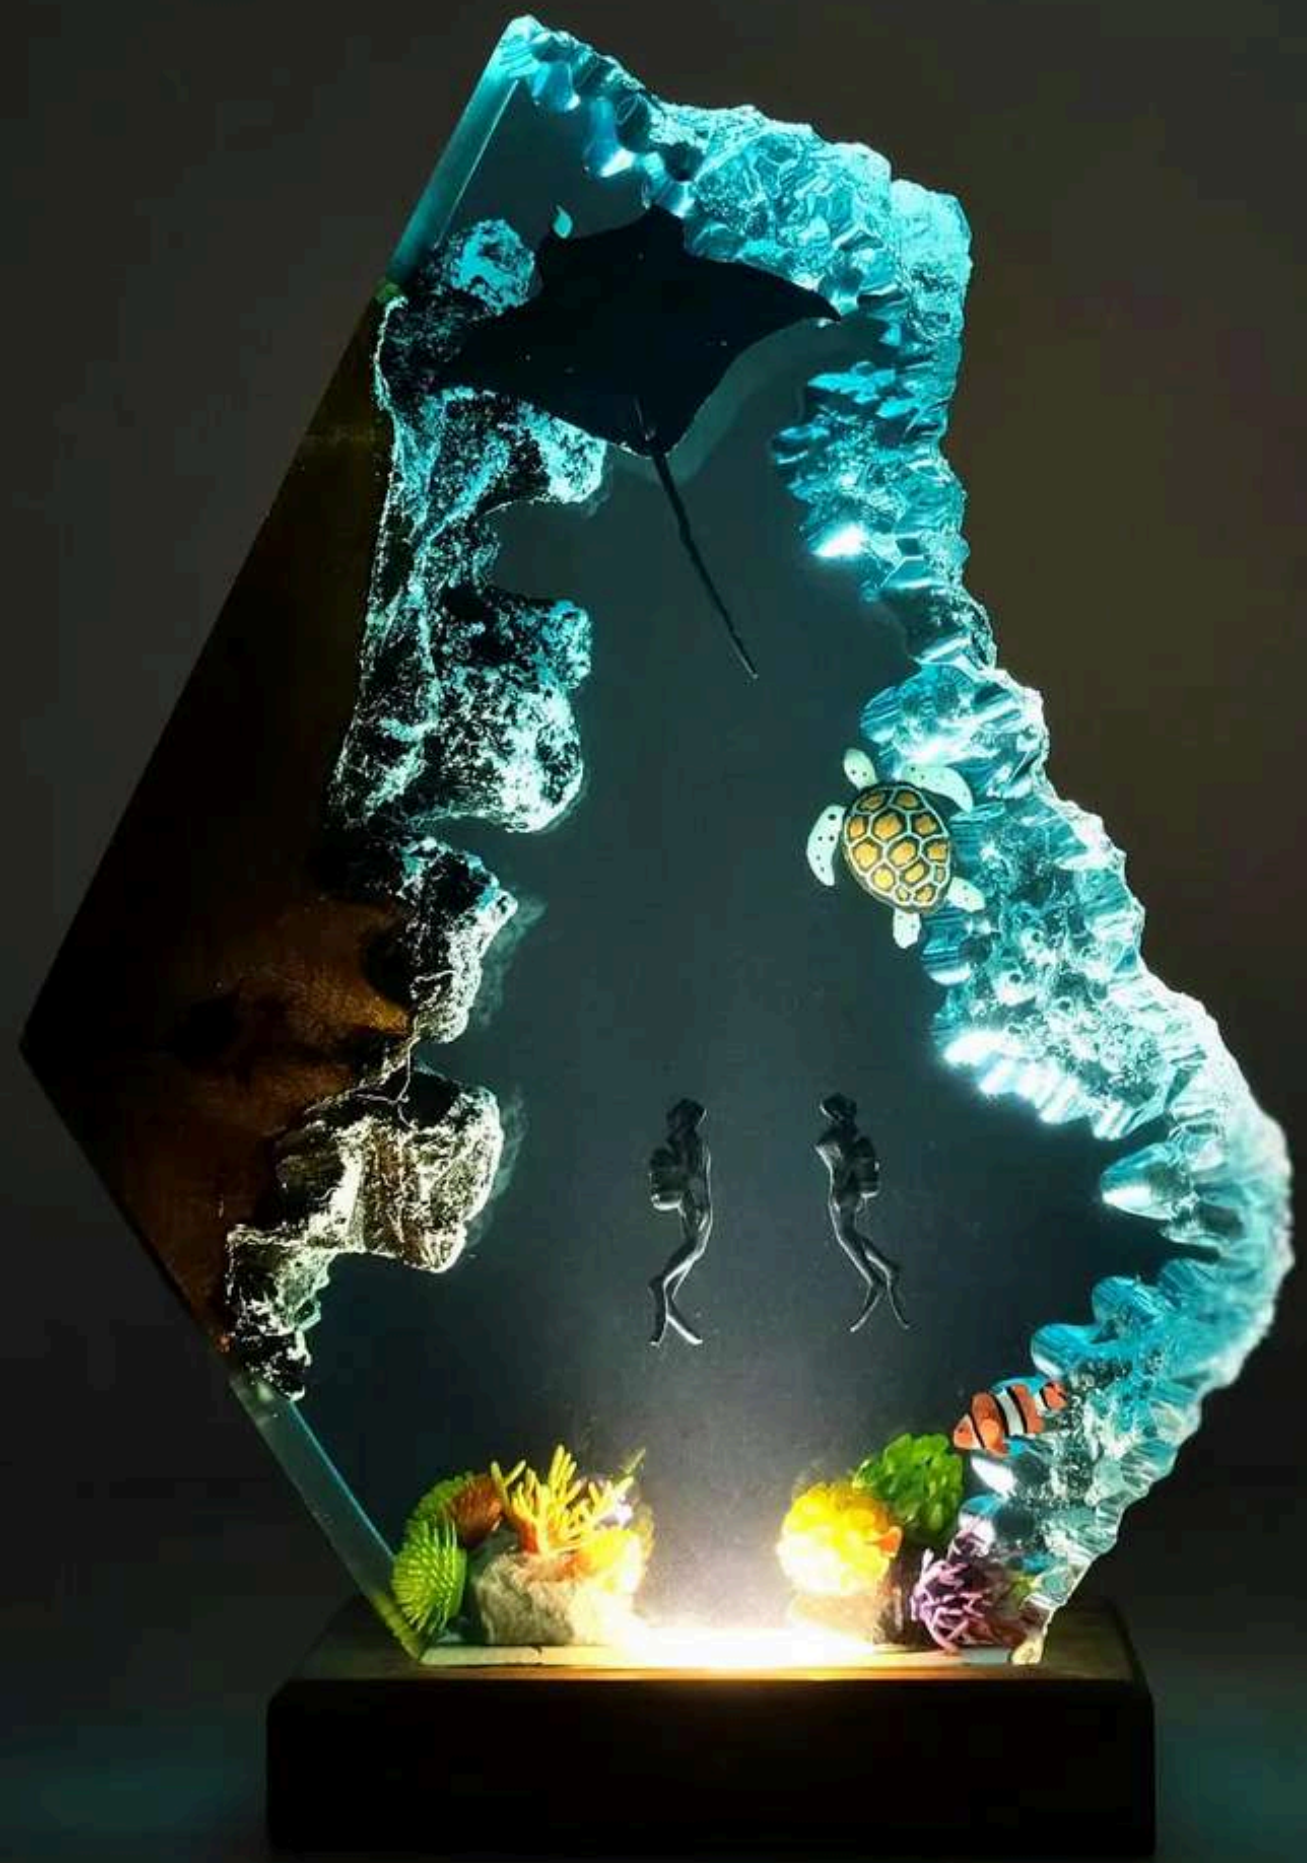

Our resin creations blend modern design with handcrafted precision. Made by talented artisans in Rajasthan and Maharashtra, each piece is poured, cured, and finished by hand — transforming simple resin into elegant trays, coasters, and decor accents. By supporting these artisans, we ensure their contemporary craft receives the recognition and value it deserves, while promoting sustainable, small-batch artistry in today's gifting world.

Tholu Bommalata Art form

Tholu Bommalata is a traditional Indian art form that involves creating hand-painted leather puppets, often depicting mythological stories and cultural narratives. We are empowering the artisans behind this unique craft by offering them a direct platform to showcase their work, ensuring fair compensation and helping preserve this vibrant and ancient art form.

Dhokra Art form

We are supporting the talented Dhokra artisans of West Bengal, known for their intricate metalwork and timeless craftsmanship. By cutting out middlemen, we offer them a direct platform to showcase their creations, ensuring they receive fair compensation for their skills while preserving this ancient art form for future generations.

Terracotta Art form

Terracotta art is a traditional craft involving the creation of handmade clay sculptures and pottery, often featuring intricate designs and cultural motifs. We are empowering artisans who specialize in this craft by providing them with a direct platform to showcase their creations, ensuring fair compensation and helping preserve this ancient art form.

Jaipur blue pottery art form

Jaipur blue pottery is a unique craft that involves creating vibrant, hand-painted ceramic pieces with intricate patterns and a distinct blue glaze. We are supporting the artisans behind this traditional craft by offering them a direct platform to showcase their work, ensuring fair compensation and helping preserve this beautiful art form.

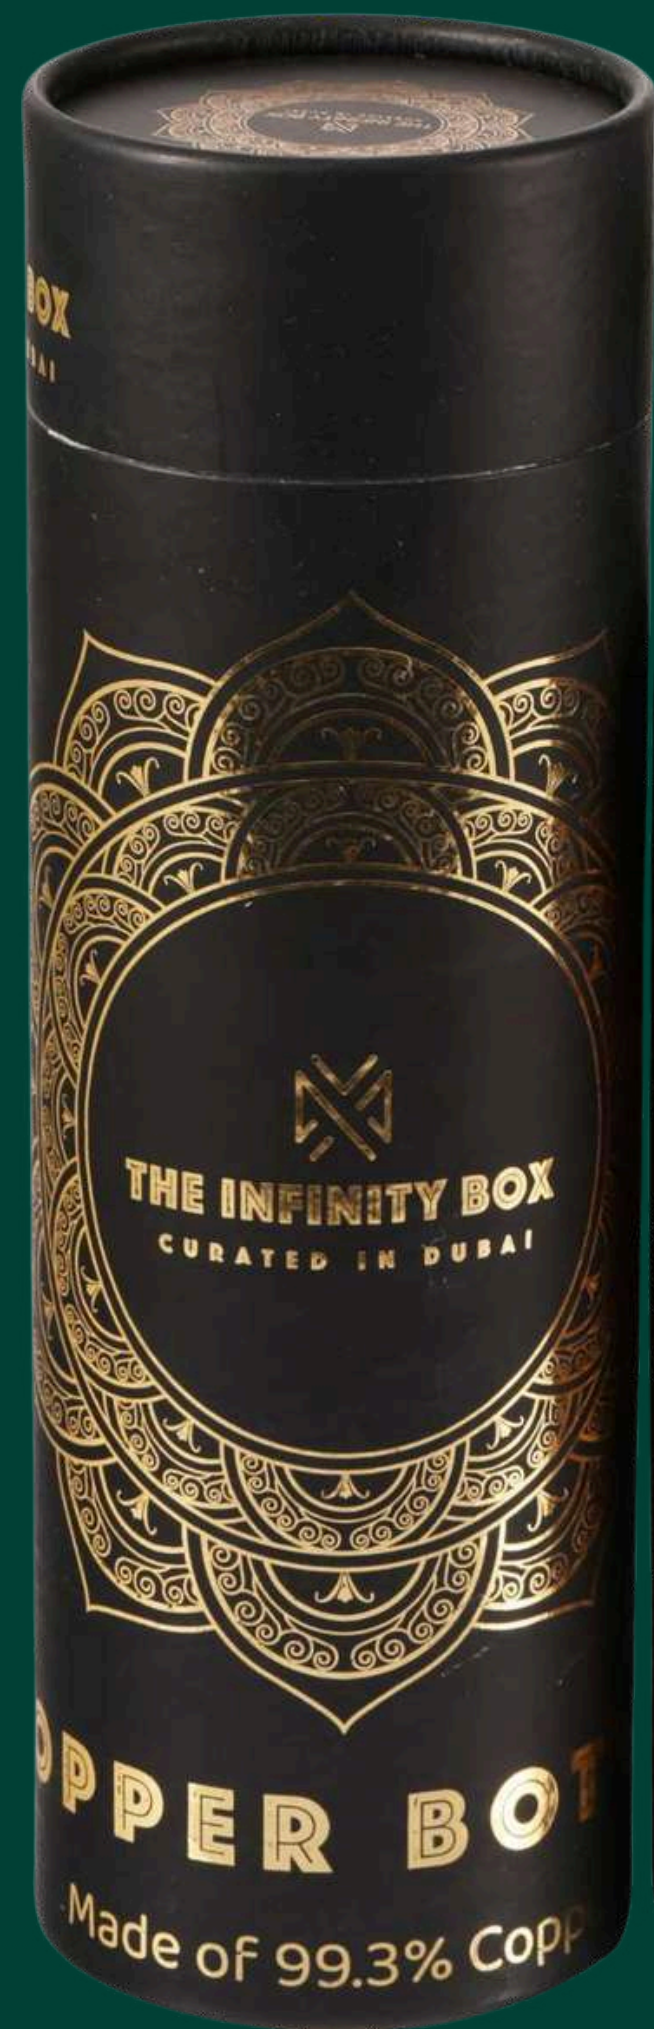

Brass & Copper Range

Brass and copper ware from Muradabad is a traditional craft known for its detailed metalwork, producing everything from intricate utensils to decorative pieces. We are supporting these talented artisans by providing them a direct platform to showcase their creations, ensuring they are fairly compensated and helping preserve this centuries-old craft.

Below are our most popular packaging options, but we're always happy to think outside the box (literally). If you have a packaging idea that isn't listed here, let us know.

Recycled Box

An eco-friendly option made from recycled cardboard. You can get the box in black or natural brown and customize it with two-color text print.

Premium Gift Baskets

This box is similar to the recycled onboarding box, but has a full-custom color print option and is available in extra large.

Luxury Kappa Box

An elegant option with all-over color print and glossy/mat finish. The inlay and inside card pocket are fully customizable.

Premium Tote Bag

A durable, high-quality tote bag in which you can put all your other items. It is a great choice as it can be reused numerous times.

A premium MDF box

With an all-over color print and a luxurious glossy or matte finish. The interior features fully customizable compartments or inlays to suit your needs, making it perfect for showcasing gifts or products.

CASE STUDY: QUARTERLY EMPLOYEE GIFTS

- A technology company sought a way to mark each quarter with a special gesture for its 500+ employees.
- However, a “one-size-fits-all” strategy wasn’t the right fit for such a diverse workforce.
- To make the gifts personal and meaningful, employees were empowered to make their own choice. At the start of every quarter, they receive a curated link featuring three gift options tailored to their preferences.

Examples of Gift Choices Include:

What’s your priority this quarter? - Time to Play / Time to Relax / Time to Get Active

How would you upgrade your workspace? - Modern Decor / Stylish Supplies / A Snack Drawer Upgrade

How will you celebrate this quarter’s success? - Cozy Movie Night / Toast with a Drink / Fun with Friends

This personalized approach had fostered a sense of appreciation and engagement across the team.

CASE STUDY: DIWALI GIFTING MADE SEAMLESS FOR BPCL

A leading oil corporation was looking for a one-stop gifting partner to manage their Diwali gifting needs for employees and stakeholders across India.

They required a reliable partner to handle the process end-to-end, ensuring timely deliveries to over 1,000 recipients nationwide while maintaining a high standard of quality.

Our Solution

The Infinity Box provided a seamless gifting experience by:

- Offering a one-stop solution for all their gifting needs, including sourcing, customization, and logistics.
- Managing the process from start to finish, ensuring a smooth execution without burdening the client's internal teams.
- Delivering gifts on time to multiple locations, including remote areas, reflecting the company's commitment to celebrating its workforce and partners.

Outcome

This collaboration eliminated logistical complexities for the client and created a memorable Diwali experience for the recipients. The client appreciated the efficiency, reliability, and hassle-free execution of the entire process.
